This Monday, October 20th, is the last day to register to vote in this historic election. Voting is an important and fundamental right of American citizens, and it is up to each of us to register to vote and exercise that right. Here are some Frequently Asked Questions to get you on your way to voter registration.

I think I may already be registered to vote, how can I be sure?

Check your status with the Santa Clara County Registrar of Voters.

How do I register to vote?

Download and print the registration form from the Santa Clara County website, fill it out, and deliver the form to the Registrar of Voters Office at the following address:

Voter Registration Division
 1555 Berger Drive, Building 2
 P.O. Box 1147
 San Jose, CA 95108

The Registrar of Voters is keeping extended hours and will be open from 8am until 7pm on Monday October 20th. If you mail-in your registration card, it must be post-marked no later than October 20th. You may also drop the form at the 24-hour drop box.

What are the requirements to register?

You must be:

- 18 years old by Election Day (born before November 5, 1990)
- a California resident and
- a US Citizen

You cannot be in prison or on parole for a felony and you may not be declared mentally incompetent by court action.

Is registration information available in languages other than English?

The Registrar of Voters provides information in multiple languages through four telephone hotlines:

English: (408) 299-VOTE
 Spanish: (408) 282-3095
 Vietnamese: (408) 282-3097
 Chinese: (408) 282-3086
 Tagalog: (408) 535-3916

California Secretary of State Debra Bowen also provides information through the following toll-free numbers:

English: (800) 345-VOTE
 Chinese: (800) 339-2857
 Japanese: (800) 339-2865
 Korean: (866) 575-1558
 Spanish: (800) 232-VOTA
 Tagalog: (800) 339-2957
 Vietnamese: (800) 339-8163

Please take a moment to get registered, if you have not already done so. Remember, your voice is your vote. Don't let others speak for you; exercise your right to vote in this election!